SAHARA LAS VEGAS

HISTORY

SAHARA Las Vegas is a truly legendary hotel and casino synonymous with Las Vegas itself. The original SAHARA was built by Del Webb in 1952, inspired by the rich themes and stories of the SAHARA Desert region. Considered "the jewel of the desert," SAHARA became the premier destination on the Las Vegas Strip in the 1960s and 1970s, hosting performers from Frank Sinatra to Johnny Carson to The Beatles. For visitors and locals alike, SAHARA epitomized the style, sophistication, and playful sense of possibility that was truly the soul of Vegas.

SAHARA LAS VEGAS

FACTS

SAHARA Las Vegas™ features 1,613 guestrooms in three distinct towers – Blanca, Marra and Alexandria – ranging from luxurious 325-square-foot rooms to opulent suites spanning 3,300 square feet. Completely remodeled and reimagined for a new era, SAHARA offers a variety of five-star dining options and a world-class casino. With unexpected delights around every corner, SAHARA embodies the style, sophistication and playful sense of possibility that's truly the spirit of Vegas - and brings the iconic Vegas experience to a whole new generation.
